TAKE CARE!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. Dr. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put more life and strength into me and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years."

Preachersville.

Robert White will go to Paris next week to visit his sister, Mrs. Jesse Traylor.

Rev. Pierce Bryant will preach his last sermon at the Baptist church on Christmas morning. He has expressed a desire to resign his pastorate here. He has been a model pastor and the brethren will regret to lose him.

As Mrs. John Bell and sister, Miss Zula Naylor, were on their way to the home of the former, near town, one day last week, they captured an opossum. It was crossing the highway and the ladies thought it would make a cunning pet and gave chase. A light tap on the cranium of the "possum" to stun him was more than he could stand and keeling over didn't have to play dead! It is a well-known fact that one of the marvellous quadrupeds may have every bone in their broken and then recover and get away.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White are, with J. M. Cress and wife, they have abandoned the idea of going to Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. James L. Anderson and little daughter, Miss Victoria are at Honaker, Va., as guests of Rev. T. H. Thornton and family. Mrs. Timothy Naylor is much better.

Misses Sarah Howard and Emma Hertzlow, the teacher of the Hobbs and Preachersville schools respectively, will have a joint entertainment at the Methodist church here Christmas Eve. A Christmas tree in connection. Messrs. J. T. Rigby, Thos. Lunsford, Willie C. White and M. O. Kennedy were the committee to procure the tree, stage etc. A nice time is anticipated.

Messrs. J. Williams, Levi Sowders, P. H. Williams, F. L. Thompson, et al attended an I. O. O. F. meeting at Lancaster.
